

Irish Cabaret Night at Little Flower Church

Saturday, Feb. 15th, 8pm
Little Flower Church, Hollywood Florida

Andy
Cooney

Due to very special circumstances, Little Flower Church is now proud to present a very entertaining evening featuring Andy Cooney and his Show Band, the Outrageous Irish Comedian Noel V. Ginnity and the dynamic sensational singing duo of Pat and Fran Marnane. All of this fabulous entertainment PLUS a gourmet Irish Corned Beef and Cabbage Feast.

Andy Cooney, his band, Noel V. Ginnity and Pat and Fran Marnane are presently on an extended North American Show Tour. This energetic ensemble is touring as an Authentic Irish Review, playing mostly to audiences in theatre and auditoriums, on a reserved seating "Hard Ticket" basis.

Because of Mr. Cooney and the group's earnest desire to assist the work being done for the community at Little Flower Church, and their desire to obtain exposure with the South Florida Irish American community, they have made arrangements whereby they might appear for one night only at Little Flower Auditorium for the meager admission price of only Twenty Dollars per PERSONAL, INCLUDING DINNER!

Andy Cooney has been christened by the New York Times as "Irish America's Native Son". His outstanding voice and dynamic stage presence has made him a favorite with audiences nationwide. One of nine children born into a deeply rooted Irish American family, Andy has been singing Irish songs literally all his life. The legendary Irish bandleader, Paddy Noonan asked Andy to tour with his show for several years. Andy has worked with other Irish greats including Phil Coulter, Cherish the Ladies and Joannie Madden and Des Moore from Riverdance. A touching duet with The Wolfetones' Derek Warfield on "Take Me Home to Mayo" is a must for serious fans of great Irish Music.

Don't miss this special opportunity to see a complete show review, and have a great dinner and fellowship, all the while benefiting the church we all know and love; Little Flower Church in Hollywood.

Saturday, Feb. 15th, 8pm., $20/person, tickets at church office, at the door (if any remaining) or call Regina: (954) 920-1022
